the paralysed, the troubled mind.

You set us free, you heal us:

a shrivelled hand, a constant bleed,

the ones who couldn't hear or speak.

Jesus, you are amazing...

You set us free from hunger:
you know the place to cast a net,
a fish's mouth could pay a debt.
You set us free from hunger:
some fish and bread, enough to share with hungry people everywhere.

Jesus, you are amazing...

The king of all creation:
you stopped the storm with one command
you walked on water like it's land.
The king of all creation:
you shook the earth, you lived and died
you rose and now you reign on high.

Jesus, you are amazing...
